

Request for Benevolence Assistance

We respond to requests for tangible short-term emergency assistance for those in crisis or transition; all with the purpose of demonstrating God's love and mercy. We provide assistance only when those requesting assistance have explored and exhausted all other possibilities of help from family, friends, and organizations that can meet the need. No monetary disbursements (cash, checks, money orders) are issued directly to those seeking assistance or to individuals on their behalf. This confidential form is used to determine the need for assistance and to identify the best way to help.
